

Down n' Dirty? No, it's Hai! Jikai!

#30 | $.35

LEGIONS OF ANTARES

February 1986

This is Hai! Jikai!, a Diplomacy zine published by Mark S. Keller.
Address: 2 Seaside Court, Sacramento, CA 95831-3775 U.S.A.
Phone: (916) 427-7183 [6PM-11:30PM weekdays, 10AM-11:30PM weekends]
Subs are on a sub balance basis. Current normal price is $.35 per issue.
Diplomacy is the registered trademark for a game (C) by Avalon Hill.
Deadline for all games in this issue is March 14, 1986 at 5PM except for phone orders which are due by March 13, 1986 at 11:30PM.
Standbys are needed. You must sub to Hai! Jikai! to play or standby.
Gamefee for regular Diplomacy is $3.00, and no NMR deposit. But I don't expect to have any openings for a long time.
There is no gamefee for variants, but they carry a $2.00 NMR deposit.

Game Sign-ups:

Bio-War:

Final Conflict: Swider

New Improved Extra Strength Dip: Acheson

Standby: Carter(R), Peters(R&V), Acheson(R), Graessle(R), Frueh(R), Botimer(R)

Note to players

I've changed the deadline from Tue/Wed to Thu/Fri. I am almost always home on Thursday night - so I should be available. But, I make no promises, a lot of things can come up between now and then.

Odds and Ends

As perhaps a few of you have noticed this issue (and the last couple before it have been late). If I was paranoid, I'd think there was a conspiracy to keep me from getting this out on time. But, I'm not, and there isn't. All I can promise is that I'll do what I can to get the issues out on time. Each time I think there will be no problem with the next issue and I'm proved wrong again. Based on whats currently happenning I expect to be back on schedule in the future but I wouldn't be surprised if an occational issue slips a couple of weeks. One thing I can promise though is that I have no intention of folding. I foresee HJ being around for at least two more years quite possibly much longer. By the way, it has come to my attention that at least 3 copies of issue #29 never reached their destination. If you didn't get yours, let me know, I have a couple of copies left.

On to other hobby new. One of my favorite zines Macabre is going warehouse to finish out it's games. Larry Peery seems to have succeeded in rescuing Diplomacy World. For info on the new DW send a SASE to DW/IDS, Box 8416, San Diego, CA 92102.

Germany-England: What's the matter? Don't you like "Nixon" players? From what I've heard you're a deserving soul for the '85 award.

Germany-France: You decide the fate of the game.

Germany-Russia: Hope you didn't move to the Baltic Sea. Heh-heh.

Eng-Ger: What ever did you do to Acheson? Boy, for him to open to Tyrolia, with Austria no less, you must of really burned him in the past. I'm beginning to see how you won the Nixon award. Trust is hard to come by, but harder once you win the Nixon!

Eng-Tur: Mens rea or res ipsa loquitor?

Eng-GM: Where did you get those neutral moves from? I've started over a dozen games in the last year, and this is the first time I got to see Italy open to the Tyrrhenian Sea. I guess Neutrality doesn't equate with average or for that fact, what is in the better interest for Italy.

GM-Eng: I made up a set of neutral moves for all the countries a long time ago. In most cases they aren't the normal moves. They are designed to get the country started toward their normal 1901 center(s), but still be neutral in regard to the surrounding powers.

Eng-ITA: I guess there is no life in Newark, DE?

GM-Eng: Seems that way, guess we'll never know for sure.

Bob-Mark: I was always under the impression that Madlads could drink.

Aus-Eng: Keep that thought in mind as I dance on your grave.

Vie-Eng: Does that mean because you've never won, that you lie REAL bad?

Aus-Rus: I hope to see that A Galicia - firmly entrenched in Rumania this fall.

Endgame statement for Germany

I believe this is one of the games that Al Pearson orphaned when he got too busy to continue pubbing his Just Among Friends sine. Seems he was too busy with work or school or something and Mark picked the game up. For Al it was a convenient way to drop all his prior commitments, lay out of the hobby a few months, and start fresh. Too bad Kathy Byrne won't try the same trick.

Anyway, I was called as a standby and immediately began a long and prosperous career of puppeting to France; who was, at the time, Mike Cannon. Eventually Mike NMR'd out and I had to go it on my own. Superior skill and cunning won out and I successfully orchestrated and end to the mess.

So, what have we learned from this? No original players were in at the end. Why even continue a game after all the original players NMR out? I don't get much thrill from picking up a standby position, although this was better than most. Yet we all play them out so we can afford some measure of fun to the other players. We become like the KKK chapter which was made up entirely of FBI members.

I propose, and have been practicing, a system of revenge for players who NMR out of a game. I fill in all those business reply cards that come in magazines and newspapers for record clubs, solar heat, pantyhose, etc. in the name of the scoundrels. Gives me a measure of satisfaction and I hope, a lot of trouble for them.
